United for Waukesha Community Fund Application Process Now Underway

Details available at www.waukeshafoundation.org

Milwaukee and Waukesha, WI, December 10, 2021. Waukesha County Community Foundation and United Way of Greater Milwaukee & Waukesha County announced today that the application phase of the United for Waukesha Community Fund is now underway.

The protocol and claim form are now available on the Waukesha County Community Foundation website www.Waukeshafoundation.org. The uniform claim form is available in English and Spanish. Copies may also be requested by emailing the Fund Administrators at info@waukeshafoundation.org.

Claim forms should be completed and submitted to the fund administrator between December 10, 2021-February 28, 2022.

“We continue to be so grateful to our generous community,” said Shelli Marquardt, President of the Waukesha County Community Foundation. “The initial distribution process to the families of deceased victims is currently underway.”

“Our plan is to begin issuing the next round of payments as quickly as possible,” said Amy Lindner, President & CEO of United Way of Greater Milwaukee & Waukesha County. “We will continue issuing payments on a rolling basis for anyone who needs more time to submit their applications.”

The fund is being administered by the Waukesha County Community Foundation, in partnership with the United for Waukesha Community Fund Committee.
